Support A Book Christmas Trees

From November 28 through December 30, both libraries will be displaying Support A Book Christmas trees

These Christmas trees will have ornaments featuring copies of covers of recent popular books. Anyone may take an ornament and make a donation of any size in order to support the purchase of that particular book. Simply take an ornament off the tree, go up to the front desk, and let a staff person know that you wish to make a donation to the library.

The library currently stocks five Little Free Libraries in Halifax County. Please feel free to borrow materials from these Little Free Libraries at any time and to stock them with any extra books that you might have.
